We see our NDT department and Nadcap approvals as a real differentiator over the competition.

General Manager, Micro Precision, speaking to Production Engineering Solutions magazine in November 2012

In tough economic times, having a competitive advantage becomes even more important than usual. Since 2010, 80% of aerospace companies polled stated that the economy has been affecting their business. Nadcap could make a difference.

Sales have increased more than 200%. Earlier, we... were known only in India... After Nadcap, we have worldwide recognition.
